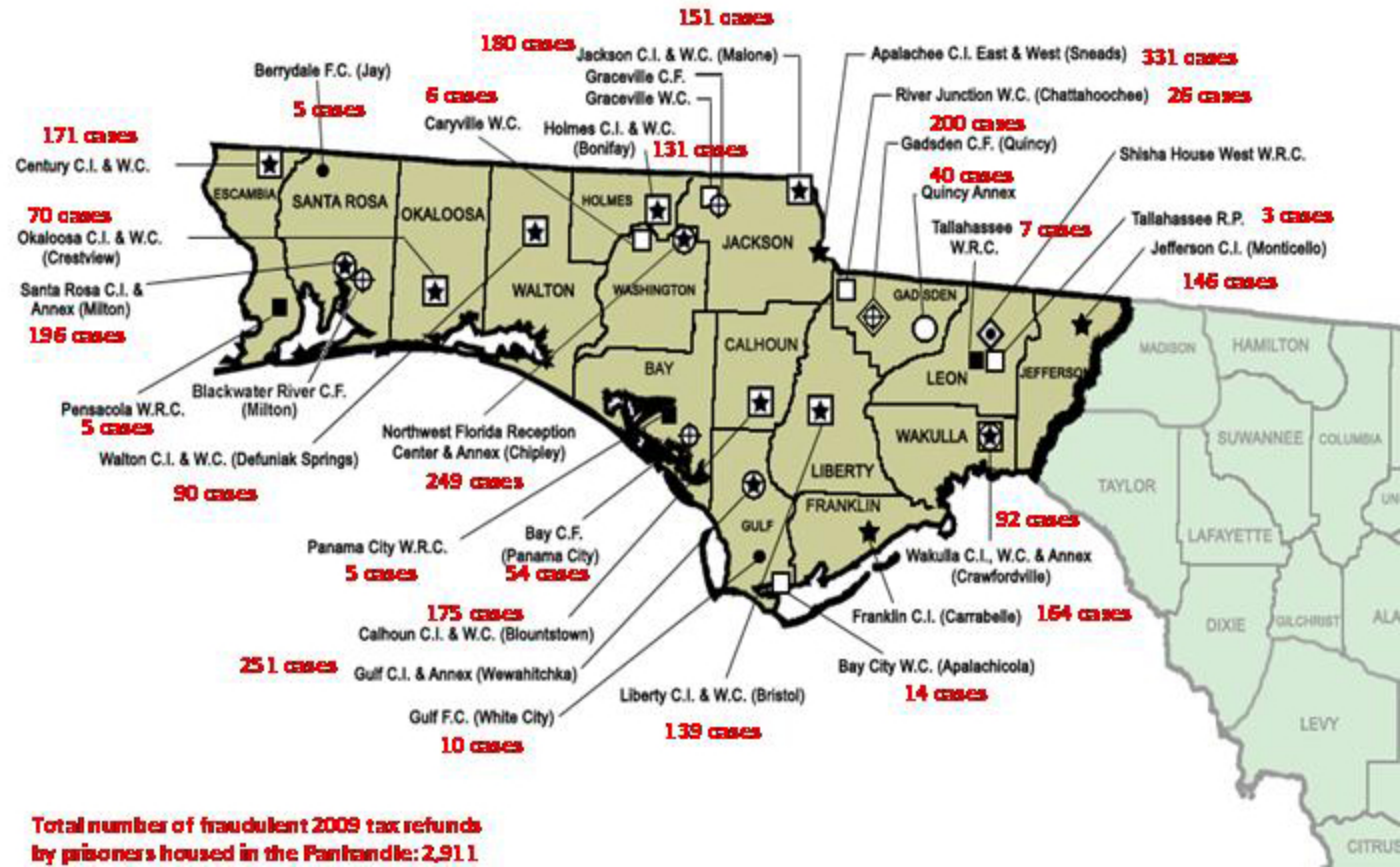
A group of tax cheats very familiar with crime

While behind bars in Northwest Florida prisons, inmates stole tons of taxpayer money by using basic tax forms. Nationwide, prisoners last year claimed $295 million in refunds they didn't deserve.



Total number of fraudulent 2009 tax refunds by prisoners housed in the Panhandle: 2,911